

Starmount Presbyterian Church
Minutes of Caring Committee
Tuesday, January 8, 2018

ATTENDANCE (Bold Print): Steve Blackwood, Charlie Lee, Staff Liaison; Kathryn Campbell, Staff Liaison; Marcia Carmichael; Evelyn Garrison; Paige Greeson; Claudel Lassiter; Susanne McIntire; Evelyn Nadler; Ann Parks; Gwen Ratterree; Lila Tunstall; May Williams; Parks Williams

May Williams opened the meeting with prayer.

Minutes were approved, as read.

Committee reports were given by various Committee members.

Kathryn and Charlie updated us regarding health issues of various church members. Also, Kathryn shared the Penvose donation of some of Silvana's "beautiful, high-end" clothes, which are displayed in Kathryn's office and dubbed "Silvana's Gift Shop." It is Ray's wish that, before donating them to a charity, the clothes be offered to any church member who can wear them. The one stipulation would be to write Ray a thank-you note, stating we would remember Silvana whenever we wore them.

We discussed poinsettia delivery to our homebound during Christmas visits. They were beautiful and greatly appreciated. Several folks wrote thank-you notes, which were shared during the meeting.

May brought up the Soup Ministry provided by Starmount Presbyterian Women. A large number of containers remain in the church freezer that should be distributed and consumed within the next three months. The soup is intended for use by church members who are having procedures and are going home needing a meal already prepared. It can also be taken to our homebound when we visit.

May encouraged the Committee to be diligent about visiting our homebound a minimum of every four to six weeks. If visits cannot be made, we should make phone calls and send cards, as a reminder of the remembrance, love and care Starmount continually holds for them. It is important that we maintain religious contact.

There being no further discussion, May closed the meeting with prayer.
